

BRAMO COBB

HIGHER LEARNING MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

The Bramo Cobb Higher Learning Memorial Scholarship honors the life of Bramo Cobb, who was an inspirational figure, particularly to family and friends. Mr. Cobb transitioned on December 4, 2004. He was an exceptional man and a firm believer that “It’s never too late to continue your education.” This scholarship is presented by his grandchildren to a first- time college student whose academic accomplishments, community service commitment, and professional goals contribute to social injustice and the betterment of mankind and change.

Eligibility Requirements:

1. Acceptance/current enrollment at a two or four year college/university.
2. Cumulative GPA 3.0
3. Submit a completed application before May 31st deadline
4. Submit a 1-2 Page Essay titled “Why it’s never too late to change”
5. Submit evidence of community service involvement.

* The availability and amount of the award may vary each year. In exceptional instances the award may be shared.

