

CHARLES U. BOWMAN

HIGHER LEARNING MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

The Charles U. Bowman Higher Learning Memorial Scholarship honors the life of Charles U. Bowman, who believed that “Everyone should be given a second chance to have a Fresh Start.” Mr. Bowman was an exceptional writer and a firm believer that “it’s never too late to continue your education”. Mr. Bowman transitioned on December 30, 2017. This scholarship is presented by his son to a continuing education student whose academic accomplishments, community service commitment, and professional goals contribute to end social injustice and the betterment of mankind and change.

Eligibility Requirements:

1. Acceptance/current enrollment at a two or four year college/university.
2. Cumulative GPA 3.0
3. Submit a completed application before May 31st deadline
4. Submit a 1-2 Page Essay titled “Why it’s never too late to change”
5. Submit evidence of community service involvement.

* The availability and amount of the award may vary each year. In exceptional instances the award may be shared.
