

Deborah Y. Hagans

HIGHER LEARNING MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

The Deborah Y. Hagans Higher Learning Memorial Scholarship honors the life of Deborah Y. Hagans, who was an inspirational figure, particularly in the field of Substance Abuse Counseling. Ms. Hagans earned her Master of Human Services Degree in May 2003 from Lincoln University and was seeking her Doctorate Degree from Capella University when she transitioned on February 13, 2008. She was an exceptional student and a firm believer that “it’s never too late to continue your education”. This scholarship is presented by her daughters to a continuing education student whose academic accomplishments, community service commitment, and professional goals contribute to social justice and the betterment of mankind and change.

Eligibility Requirements:

1. Acceptance/current enrollment at a two or four year college/university.
2. Cumulative GPA 3.0
3. Submit a completed application before May 31st deadline
4. Submit a 1-2 Page Essay titled “Why it’s never too late to change”
5. Submit evidence of community service involvement.

* The availability and amount of the award may vary each year. In exceptional instances the award may be shared.
